To Whom It May Concern,

During the November-December 2021 time-frame, Norman Weitzberg, CEO of Pinnacle Executive Search, LLC worked directly with me to help identify and attract a Chief Financial Officer.

In a few short weeks Norman had identified 10-15 candidates whom he helped me to schedule interviews, some of which appeared to be very promising candidates. After Norman finished recruiting and scheduling each candidate to speak with me, our Private Equity firm took over the search resulting in the Private Equity firm directly pursuing candidates and we discontinued working with Norman, even though he performed very well.

There is no question Norman did great work for us in a short window of time. If another recruiting opportunity arises, I would give Norman and Pinnacle Executive Search, LLC every consideration to work with me again.

Cordially,

John Dolores
